SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit to substance abuse testing, to include urinalysis and other testing. Details of such testing to be approved by the U.S. Probation Office. If substance abuse is indicated by testing, the defendant is to complete a drug/alcohol evaluation and enter into any treatment as deemed necessary by the U.S. Probation Office and/or the Court. The defendant is not to leave treatment until discharge is agreed to by the U.S. Probation Office and/or the Court. While in treatment and after discharge from treatment, the defendant is to abstain from the use of alcohol. The defendant is required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (co-payment in the amount to be determined by the U.S. Probation Office based on the ability to pay or availability of third party payment).

You shall comply with the conditions of home detention for six (6) months. During this time you will remain at your place of residence except for employment, schooling, and other activities approved by your probation officer. You shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures as outlined in Probation Form 61. The defendant shall pay a portion or the total cost of electronic monitoring services at the daily rate provided by the U.S. Probation Office. The daily rate and payment schedule are subject to periodic adjustments by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be given permission to attend activities with her daughter.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with access to any requested personal and/or business financial information. The U.S. Probation Office is authorized to release pre-sentence and post-sentence financial information submitted by the defendant to the U.S. Attorney's Office for use in the collection of any unpaid fine or restitution. If restitution or a fine is owed, the defendant shall notify the U.S. Probation Office of any assets received and shall not disburse his/her interest in any assets, including, but not limited to, income tax refunds, inheritance, insurance and lawsuit settlements, or gambling winnings without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant shall submit to a search of her person, property, vehicle, place of residence or any other property under her control and permit confiscation of any evidence or contraband discovered.

While a restitution balance is outstanding, the defendant shall not incur any form of debt including, but not limited to, use of existing credit cards, new credit cards, lines of credit, mortgages or private loans without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.
